

Financial Transparency for Philippines

Financial Transparency for Philippines

Healthcare professional engagement in the Philippines

In line with our Code of Ethics, Novartis Philippines increases transparency about the vital role of healthcare providers and healthcare professionals in the development and use of new, innovative medicines.

Transparency in financial relationships between pharmaceutical companies and healthcare professionals/organizations is crucial for maintaining ethical standards and public trust. It ensures that potential conflicts of interest are disclosed, allowing patients and the medical community to make informed decisions.

Novartis Philippines shall document, maintain records, and submit to DOH-FDA all financial relationships directly or indirectly made with healthcare providers and healthcare professionals, both in private and public sectors, in accordance with existing laws implementing rules and regulations and guidelines.

Reportable payments or transfers of value are:

- For health care providers, all sponsorship of events, research and educational grants, payment of services, space rentals or facility fees, and donations for patients, among other health care provider services arrangements;
- For health care professionals, all donations, educational grants, research funding, sponsorships related to events, travel, and accommodation, registration fees, honoraria, support for continuing professional development (CPD), royalties, current or prospective ownership or investment interest, consultancy/speakership fees, among other health care professional services arrangements; and
- Payments to drugstores for disease awareness partnership programs, training of drugstore pharmacists conducted by companies or training of drugstore pharmacists conducted by third parties on behalf of companies, or similar nature of financial relationships, shall be disclosed and reported.
